COURTESY CALLICOON FINE ARTS

Opening: Bracha L. Ettinger at Callicoon Fine Arts

Bracha L. Ettinger's show at Callicoon Fine Arts marks the abstract painter's first show in New York since her "Eurydice" series was shown at the Drawing Center in 2001, and features oil paintings as well as works on paper and notebooks. Blues, reds, and violets are crosshatched to reveal the same images of genocide that appeared in her "Eurydice" series at the Drawing Center, now printed directly onto canvases. According to Ettinger, "Abstraction that begins from the mind enacts from the painting itself a healing transformation that confronts the most difficult atrocities in reality."

Callicoon Fine Arts, 49 Delancey Street, 6–8 p.m.
